OLD BUSINESS

VIII. Spring Bazaar

Shannon Martin reported that we had 17 vendors at the Spring Bazaar on Saturday and received good feedback from them. We sold 15 shirts for a total profit of $110. She made a motion that that we place the shirt committee in charge of finding worthy organizations or causes to donate the rest of the shirts. The motion was seconded by Georgia Andrews and approved. Ideas included Holy Angels, mission trips, homeless shelters, etc.

IX. Beautification Committee

Shannon White Lamp announced the School Clean Up day will be Saturday, April 29th from 9 am to Noon at McAdenville Elementary. We will be putting out new mulch, planting flowers and doing yard work. Bring your kids and yard tools. Lemonade and cookies will be provided.

X. Scholarship Committee

Georgia Andrews reported that so far no applications have been submitted, but there were still 2 more weeks before the deadline. Laura Arnold suggested we pull some money out of our main account and put it aside in something safe at the bank where it could accrue interest. Linda Blackledge will meet with the bank to get some ideas.

XI. Coat Closet Update

Ashley Black reported that Carrie Bailey had found a use for the extra money that is sitting aside for McAdenville Elementary, however that event has since been cancelled. We still have the money available for use.

XI. Share the Love Campaign

Laura Arnold reminded everyone that she sent out an email listing all the places the $10 was used in the town. Most projects fell within a few categories and churches was one that seemed popular. Laura suggested we consider them in the future when we make plans for funding, since there are several churches in our small town.

NEW BUSINESS

XII. Storage Closet Organization

The club thanked Laura Stewart for her hard work in organizing and cleaning out the storage closet at the Y. She made a motion for the club to reimburse her for the expense and Kristin Turner seconded it. Motion was approved.

XIII. MS Walk

Laura Stewart discussed her involvement with the Walk for Multiple Sclerosis. Sheryl Beck made a motion that the club donate $300 to the MS Walk and Kelly Jones seconded. The motion was approved.

XIV. National Trails Day

Laura Arnold announced that the Carolina Thread Trail event would be held this year on June 3rd and includes nature hikes, food trucks and bands. Everyone is invited to attend. Sponsorship levels for the event were discussed and Shannon White Lamp made a motion that we donate $1,000 to become the Hike and Paddle Sponsor. Pam Sowards seconded and the motion was approved.

XV. Teacher Appreciation

Kelly Jones announced that Teacher Appreciation Week is the first week in May and the PTO at McAdenville Elementary will be once again hosting a dessert bar for the teachers. If anyone is interested in donating a dessert, please let her know. The dessert bar will be on Wednesday, May 3rd so you can bring your donation to the May Women's Club meeting or someone from the PTO can arrange with you to pick it up.

XVI. Annual Egg Hunt

Roxann Rankin is looking for volunteers to help with the annual egg hunt. It will be held on Saturday, April 15 at Noon in the backyard of the Pharr home. Volunteers are needed to stand in the age groups and help with the hunt. Lunch is provided for all volunteers after the event. If you are available, let Roxann know as soon as possible.

XVII. YMCA Movie Nights

Roxann also announced that the Y will once again be hosting movie nights with food trucks in Legacy Park this spring and summer. The first one will be Friday May 19. Trolls will be the movie and Hillbillies and See Jane Bake will be selling food. June 23, August 25 and September 22 are the other dates.

XIV. Adjournment – Next meeting will be May 2nd at 7 pm in the ballroom at Pharr YMCA

Remember yearly dues are $15. Please get yours to Linda Blackledge as soon as possible.
